

Critic's choice

Rachel
Campbell-
Johnston

1 Battersea Contemporary Art Fair

Want something for the wall? A selling exhibition of a wide range of works to leaf through gives you plenty of choices. Battersea Arts Centre, London SW11 (020-7223 2223), from Fri, until May 16, phone for prices

2 Venetian Impressions

Old favourites brought to entrancing new life by the film artist Jerry Fox, who makes the Masters of Venice live again. Eleven, London SW1 (020-7823 5540), until June 5, free

3 Paul Sandby RA: Picturing Britain

The father of English landscape unfurls his topographical talents as the RA celebrates the bicentenary of his death. Royal Academy of Arts, London W1 (020-7300 8000), until June 13, £9

4 Fra Angelico to Leonardo: Italian Renaissance Drawings

A wonderful collaboration between the Uffizi and the British Museum offers a superlative look at the early Renaissance. British Museum, London WC1 (020-7323 8299), until July 25, £12, concs £10

5 Highlights of Impressionism

A stroll through art history's most popular landscapes in a show of sunlit Impressionist works by artists from Monet to Sisley and Cézanne. National Museum Cardiff (02920 397951), until Aug 15, free